

Three Decades of Care for Our Town: The Washington Environmental Council -
Fall 2006 through Spring 2007

This local volunteer organization has fostered the care and stewardship of our town's beautiful and diverse landscape for thirty years. Celebrating this important anniversary this exhibition will examine the history of this organization and its contributions to improving the quality of our environment since the mid-1970s.